Subject: Frank Oliver Goff.

Hi Kay,

Your're right! Was checking the death records of rootsweb and saw where someone stated Geo. Oliver Goff d. Jan. 16, 1951 in MS. I have no Geo. Oliver Goff in my database. Frank Oliver Goff was my 2nd half cousin once removed, and I have his birth date as August 30, 1949, d. Jan. 16, 1951. Below are some of the Goffs I have in my database. I hope some of this information helps. If you could fill in some of the missing blanks (birth, birthplace, death, deathplace, marriage and where, and other information.) Elizabeth Bertha Williams was my ggrandmother, and my ggrandfather was Ellis Goff. Ellis was Elizabeth Bertha Williams 2nd husband. If you need the family of Ellis Goff let me know which is whom I am descended.

Talk to ya later cuz,

		Bulloch Co., Georgia.
4. Civil	b. c1758, m.	Rice Mathis, son of Edmond and Mary Price Mathis. He died in 1793 leaving six children. She later married a James.
5. William (Q.V.)	b. 1761, m.	Sabra Mathis, dau. of Edmond and Mary Price Mathis. He died after 1837 in Jefferson Co, Florida.

Most of the Goff children moved to Bulloch County, Georgia, between 1792 and 1815. They did not all move at the same time. By 1810, many of the family connection had moved to Jackson County, Miss. Some remained in Georgia, while others moved to Jackson County, Florida . There seems to have been quiet a bit of movement, back and forth, between Jackson County, Mississippi and Northwest Florida.

John Goff, Sr. has many thousands of descendants, many of whom live in South Georgia, Northwest Florida, and Mississippi. Many of the Blanton's and Mathis's of South Georgia are descendants as well as some of the Williams family of Bulloch County, Georgia, and Northwest Florida, through Frederick Williams.

The son, John Goff, Jr., was a Revolutionary War Soldier from Duplin County, North Carolina, and made a Pension Application for his service in 1844, while a resident of Telfair County, Georgia. In it, he states that he was born in Duplin County, North Carolina, and had lived "lately" in Florida, and that he was 94 years old. He also lived in Lowndes County, Georgia.

Contributed by: E. L.(Boe) Williams of Valdosta, Georgia.

1. William	b. 1781, m. 1) Naomi Carter, 11/30/1807, dau. of Matthew. 2) ?????? Black, dau. of Malcolm.
2. James	b. 1782, m. Frances ???????.
3. Elizabeth	b. 1784, m. Henry Fletcher, 12/18/1811.
4. Lewis	b. 1786, m. unknown.
5. Mary	b. 1788, m. William Carter, 11/20/1810, son of Matthew.
6. Ann	b. 1791, m. Matthew Carter, Jr., son of Matthew.
7. Edmund	b. 1794, m. Lucretia Wells. d. 1873.
8. Susannah	b. 1801, m. Samuel Davis.

William Goff served in the Revolutionary War, first under Captain Lenoir for about 5 and one-half months, then under Captain William Rutledge of entended in Jefferson County, Florida, November 29. 1837.

William Goff moved from Duplin County North Carolina, to Bulloch County, Georgia about 1805 , thence to Jackson County, Mississippi about 1818. After his wife's death, August 29, 1829, William migrated to Louisiana, and then to Jefferson County, Florida where he died.

GOLDWIRE, JAMES OFFUTT 1812-1863 LOWNDES

James Offutt Goldwire was born in Effingham County November 19, 1812, a son of John and Frances Offutt Goldwire (Vol.V). He married his first cousin, Maria Goldwire, born in Effingham, a daughter of James L. Goldwire. They had only three children:

1. John J.	b.	1835.
	d.	4/24/1886. died single in Valdosta.
2. Sarah Frances	b.	1838, m. Remer Young (Vol.IV).
3. Maria Ann	b.	1840, m. Joshua G. Moore in 1858.

The Goldwire homeplace was on his farm, located twelve or fifteen miles southwest of Troupville, the then county seat of Lowndes County. He and his wife were among the organizing members of Troupville Church when it was constituted June 21, 1840. They remained faithful members until their deaths. This church was moved into Valdosta when it became the county-seat in 1860, and renamed the Valdosta Baptist Church, and is now the First Baptist Church. Mr. Goldwire sold his farm, and moved into the new town, or village, of Valdosta on the newly-built Atlantic and Gulf Railroad. He was appointed, on May 23, 1860, as Valdosta's first postmaster, and held that office at his death, March 8, 1863. His wife died December 20, 1864. They were buried in the Valdosta town cemetery.

NOTE: The Goldwire tombstones state that he was 64 years of age at his death, and that she was 62 years of age when she died. These ages are at variance with his birth-date in his father's old bible record, and with her age as shown by the census.

A man named Larry Williams called the Department Feb. 2013 and said that Samuel Davis Goff, son of Lewis P. Goff and Elizabeth Davis Goff, married a Henrietta Clay Davis, daughter of G.S.C. Davis and Rebecca Baker Davis..in 1891 Orleans Parish. He said the oral history is that they were people of color who moved to Jackson Co. to live as white. I looked at the genealogy of the family and couldn't determine any of this to be true. I am waiting for more info from his family.

GODWIN, WILSON 1816-1899 BERRIEN

Wilson Godwin was born in Bulloch County July 3, 1816, a son of Jonah and Rebecca Godwin. He moved, with his mother and step-father, to Lowndes County where he was reared. Wilson spent a few years in Thomas County where he was in the Indian War. He then came to what is now Berrien County where he married, December 16, 1866, Mrs. Minerva Jane Peeples, a widow, and daughter of Samuel D. Morris. To them three children were born:

1. David J.	b. 1867,	m. 1) Mary J. Lee. 2) Mrs. Miranda McLaughlin.
2. Josephine	b. 1870, d. 1907.	m. Q. B. Morgan.
3. Julian H.	b. 1872,	m. Mrs. Emma Kirkland Baldree.

Wilson Godwin was in the Confederate Army from Nashville, and, in 1870, he moved to Clinch County. In 1875, he and his family moved to Campbell County, and, in 1881, they moved back to Clinch County where he lived the remainder of his life. Minerva Godwin died about 1880. She is buried at St. Paul Church, Fayette County, three miles from Whitesburg, Georgia. Wilson Godwin died February 4, 1899, and is buried at Red Bluff Church.

GOFF, JOHN, SR., R.S. 1717-1809 DUPLIN (N.C.)

John Goff, Sr. was born about 1717, a son of John Goff and nephew of Thomas Goff. At an early date, he moved to Duplin County, North Carolina, probably before the creation of that county in 1749. In 1751, Mr. Goff made application for a land grant in Duplin County, and secured several tracts of land on Beaver Dam, Rockfish Creek, and Goff's Millpond, where he had been living for sometime. This land lay in southwestern Duplin County, near the present Sampson and Pender County lines, and not far from the town of Wallace. He previously had lived on Six Run Creek.

Mr. Goff served in the North Carolina Militia under Colonel Richard Caswell, and took part in the battle of Moore's Creek Bridge, February 27, 1776, as proven by payments made to him for his service. His sons also served with him.

The name of John Goff's first wife, who was the mother of his children, is not definitely known at this time. His second wife, in his old age, was Elizabeth Hennesy. In 1807, John Goff, Sr. and Elizabeth Hennesy made a pre-martial agreement, whereby, if she would marry him and care for him in his old age, he would leave her his entire estate. True to his word, his will, probated in 1809, left her the bulk of his estate, and left a nominal legacy to each of his children.

In a "Deed of Gift" in 1791, Mr. Goff named five of his grandchildren, children of his son, William, all of whom, later, moved to Jackson County, Miss. They were James, Elizabeth, Lewis, Mary, and Ann.

The following children were named in his will:

And now at this Term comes the defendants by Attorney & defends the wrong & injury when &c & says that he did not undertake & promise in manner & form as the plaintiff hath alleged - And of this he puts himself upon the Country

The following regulations have been adopted:

This law has been construed to extend, as well to the line, as to every branch of the Staff of the Army, and to include under the terms "Continental Line," "State troops," "militia," and "volunteers," all persons enlisted, drafted, or who volunteered and who were bound to military service, but not those who were occasionally employed with the army upon civil contracts, such as Clerks to Commissaries and to Store Keepers, &c., Teamsters, Boatmen, &c. Persons who served on board of private armed vessels are also excluded from the benefits of the law, as well as persons who turned out as patrols, or were engaged in guarding particular places at night, and were not recognized as being in actual military service.

Four general classes of cases are embraced in this law:

1. The Regular Troops.
2. The State Troops, Militia, and Volunteers.
3. Persons employed in the Naval Service.
4. Indian Spies.

As rolls of the regular troops in the Revolutionary War exist in this Department, all persons claiming the benefit of this law as officers, non-commissioned officers, mucicians or privates, will, in the first instance, make application by transmitting the following declaration, which will be made before a Court of Record of the County where such applicant resides. And every Court having by law a seal and Clerk is considered a Court of Record.

Sworn to and subscribed the day and year aforesaid.

[And then will follow the certificate of the Court.]

And the said Court do hereby declare their opinion (g) that the above named applicant was a revolutionary soldier, and served as he states.

I of the Court of do hereby certify (h) that the foregoing contains the original proceedings of the said Court in the matter of the application of for a pension.

In testimony whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and seal of office (i) this day of &c.

If, on examination of the proper record, the names of applicants, making such declaration, cannot be found, they will produce such proof as the rule given in note (j) points out.

Every applicant who claims a pension by virtue of service in the State Troops, Volunteers or Militia, except those who belonged to the New Hampshire Militia and State Troops of Virginia, will make and subscribe a declaration similar to the foregoing, with the following additions, viz:

(k) We, A. B., a Clergyman, residing in the and C. D. residing in (the same) hereby certify, that we are well acquainted with , who has subscribed and sworn to the above declaration; that we believe him to be years of age; that he is reputed and believed, in the neighborhood where he resides, to have been a soldier of the Revolution, and that we concur in that opinion.

[And then will follow the certificate of the Court.]

And the said Court do hereby declare their opinion, after the investigation of the matter, and after putting the interrogatories prescribed by the War Department, that the above named applicant was a Revolutionary Soldier, and served as he states. And the Court further certifies, that it appears to them that A. B. who has signed the preceding certificate is a clergyman, resident in the and that C. D., who has also signed the same is a resident in the and is a credible person, and that their statement is entitled to credit.

I, Clerk of the Court of do hereby certify that the foregoing contains the original proceedings of the said Court, in the matter of the application of for a pension.

In testimony whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and seal of office, this day of &c.

Every applicant will produce the best proof in his power. This is the original discharge or commission; but if neither of these can be obtained, the party will so state under oath, and will then procure, if possible, the testimony of at least one credible witness, stating in detail his personal knowledge of the services of the applicant, and such circumstances connected therewith, as may have a tendency to throw light upon the transaction.

If such surviving witness cannot be found, the applicant will so state in his declaration (l) and he will also, whether he produce such evidence or not, proceed to relate all the material facts, which can be useful in the investigation of his claim, and in the comparison of his narrative with the events of the period of his alleged service, as they are known at the Department. A very full account of the services of each person will be indispensable to a favorable action upon his case. The facts stated will afford one of the principal means of corroborating the declaration of the applicant, if true, or of detecting the imposition, if one be attempted; and unless, therefore, these are amply and clearly set forth, no favorable decision can be expected. All applicants will appear before some Court of Record in the County in which they reside, and there subscribe and be sworn to, one of the declarations above provided, according to the nature of his case.

The Court will propound the following (m) interrogatories to all applicants for a pension, on account of service in the Militia, State troops, or Volunteers, except the Militia of New Hampshire and the State troops of Virginia.

1. Where and in what year were you born?
2. Have you any record of your age, and if so, where is it?
3. Where were you living when called into service; where have you lived since the Revolutionary war, and where do you now live?
4. How were you called into service; were you drafted, did you volunteer, or were you a substitute? And if a substitute, for whom?
5. State the names of some of the Regular Officers, who were with the troops, where you served; such Continental and Militia Regiments as you can recollect, and the general circumstances of your services.
6. To a Soldier. Did you ever receive a discharge from the service, and if so, by whom was it given, and what has become of it?
   To an Officer. Did you ever receive a commission, and if so, by whom was it signed, and what has become of it?
7. State the names of persons to whom you are known in your present neighborhood, and who can testify as to your character for veracity, and their belief of your services as a soldier of the Revolution.

The Court will see that the answers to these questions are embodied in the declaration, and they are requested to annex their opinions of the truth of the statement of the applicant.

The applicant will further produce in Court, if the same can be done, in the opinion of the Court, without too much expense and inconvenience to him, two respectable persons—one of whom should be the nearest clergyman, if one lives in the immediate vicinity of such applicant, who can testify, from their acquaintance with him, that they believe he is of the age he represents, and that he is reputed and believed in the neighborhood to have been a Revolutionary soldier, and that they concur in that opinion. If one of these persons is a Clergyman, the Court will so certify, and they will also certify to the character and standing of other persons giving such certificates.

The traditionary evidence of service is deemed very important, in the absence of any direct proof, except the declaration of the party. And the Courts are requested to be very particular in the inquiry whether the belief is general, and whether any doubts have ever existed upon the subject.

Applicants unable to appear in Court, by reason of bodily infirmity, may make the declaration before required, and submit to the examination, before a Judge or Justice of a Court of Record of the proper county, and the Judge or Justice will execute the duties, which the Court is herein requested to perform, and will also certify that the applicant cannot, from bodily infirmity, attend the Court.

Whenever any official act is required to be done by a Judge or Justice of a Court of Record, or by a Justice of the Peace, the certificate of the Secretary of State or Territory, or of the proper Clerk of the Court or County, under his seal of office, will be annexed, stating that such person is a Judge or Justice of a Court of Record, or a Justice of the Peace, and that the signature annexed is his genuine signature.

No payments can be made on account of the services of any person, who may have died before the taking effect of the act of June 7, 1832; and in case of death subsequent thereto, and before the declaration herein required is made, the parties interested will transmit such evidence as they can procure, taken and authenticated before a Court of Record, showing the services of the deceased, the period of his death, the opinion of the neighborhood respecting such services, the title of the claimant, and the opinion of the Court upon the whole matter.

[a] The declarant must appear in open Court, unless prevented from doing so by reason of bodily infirmity; in which case the declarant will follow the rule laid down for his guidance.
[b] The declarant must make his declaration in the county where he resides. If he should fail to do so, he must assign a sufficient reason for not conforming to the rule.
[c] The age of the claimant must invariably be mentioned.
[d] The declarant must mention the period or periods of the war when he served.)
[e] Every continental officer or soldier must give the name of the Colonel under whom he served; otherwise a satisfactory examination of the claim cannot be had. Every claimant must state, with precision, the length of his service, and the different grades in which he served, in language so definite, as to enable the Department to determine to what amount of pension he is entitled. In a case where the applicant cannot, by reason of the loss of memory, state precisely how long he served, he should amend his declaration by making an affidavit in the following words:

Personally appeared before me, the undersigned, a Justice of the Peace, &c. A. B. who, being duly sworn, deposeth and saith that, by reason of old age, and the consequent loss of memory, he cannot swear positively as to the precise length of his services; but, according to the best of his recollection, he thinks not more than the periods mentioned below, and to the following grades. For ____ year ____ months; and ____ days, I served as a ____; for ____ months and ____ days, I served as a ____; and for ____ months and ____ days, I served as a ____.

It is important, in all cases, to determine with precision the period for which each applicant served, and the particular rank he held, as the law directs the pension to be paid according to the grade of the pensioner and the length of his service. The use of the phrase about three or four months, is too indefinite, and all such qualifying expressions are objectionable. Some persons who apply for pensions merely state that they served two years in the militia, &c. without specifying the tours, the names of the officers, and other particulars respecting their service. This form of a declaration is highly objectionable. It must, in every case, be clearly shown under what officers the applicant served; the duration of each term of engagement; the particular place or places where the service was performed; that the applicant served with an embodied corps called into service by competent authority; that he was either in the field or in garrison; and for the time during which the service was performed, he was not employed in any civil pursuit.

[f] The law makes the relinquishment indispensable.
[g] The opinion of the Court is always required.
[h] The Clerk must give his certificate in every case.
[i] The Clerk must affix his seal, and if it has no device or inscription by which it can be distinguished from any other seal, or if he has no public seal of office, the certificate of a Member of Congress, proving the official character and signature of the certifying officer, should accompany the papers.

Mode of authenticating papers.

In every instance where the certificate of the certifying officer who authenticates the papers is not written on the same sheet of paper which contains the affidavit, or other papers authenticated, the certificate must be attached thereto by a piece of tape or narrow ribbon, the ends of which must meet under the seal of office of the certifying officer, so as to prevent any paper from being improperly attached to the certificate.

Proof of Service.

[j] In a case where the name of the applicant is not found on the records of the Department, he must prove his service by two credible witnesses who are required to set forth in their affidavits the time of the claimant's entering the service, and the time and manner of his leaving the same, as well as the regiment, company, and line to which he belonged. The magistrate who may administer the oaths must certify to the credibility of the witnesses, and the official character and signature of the magistrate must be certified by the proper officer, under his seal of office.

[k] The notes from [a] to [i] are all equally applicable to the cases of Militia men, Volunteers and State Troops. The proof required by rule in note [j] applies to continental troops only.
[l] This traditionary evidence is indispensable in militia cases.
[m] If a witness cannot be found, the declarant must state the fact.
[n] The answers to the interrogatories must all be written, and sent to the War Department, with the declaration.

A Visit to.....the furniture man!

While driving around looking for a late breaking story the other day, we spotted this elderly, silver haired, distinguished looking gentleman working on a peculiar looking object in his back yard. After stopping, we recognized Wayne Goff, an old friend from years ago at the Little League park.

Turns out, Wayne is heavy into furniture making. And he has made some beautiful things. The piece he was working on in the yard is a 'curio' I was told. He was just done staining and will now put on a clear coating of polyurethane or similiar material .

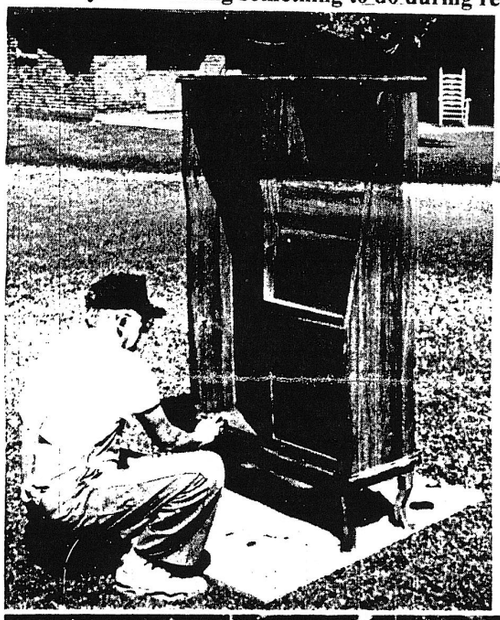

'I get carried away when I'm working out here," Wayne said. "I often forget to eat I get so involved."

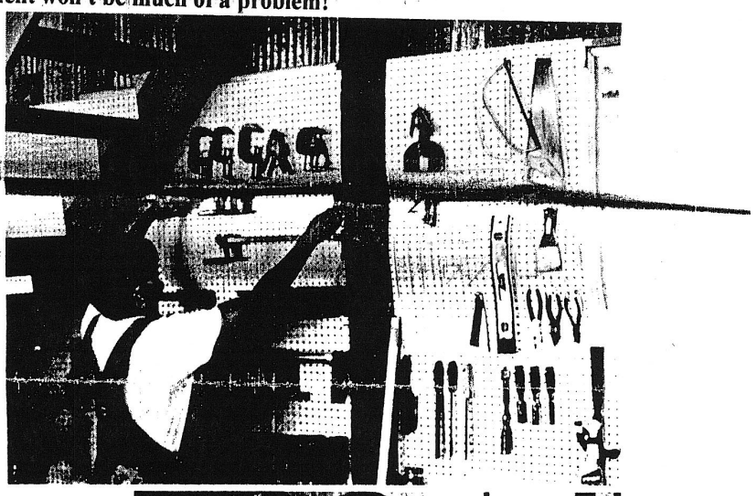

He took me in the house and showed me an entertainment center (pictured below) that he had crafted. All first class quality construction. (Would you believe my workshop looks just as neat as Waynes? I didn't think so!)

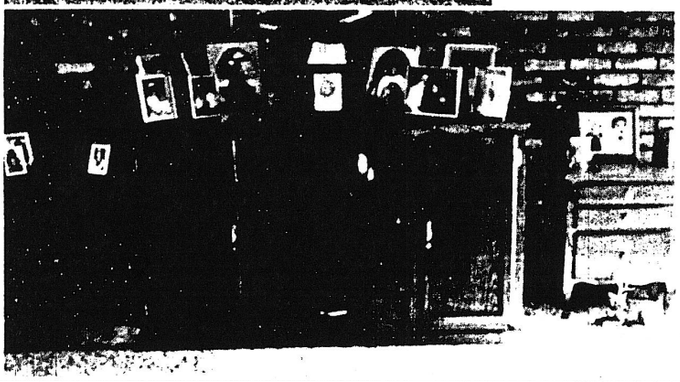

Most of his work is in oak but there were a couple of end tables inside made from cherry wood. Very beautiful.

He was particularly proud of his new planer. It makes short work of sizing a piece of wood.

During his spare time from furniture making, Wayne is a Section Manager in Hull Design and Engineering at Ingalls. Been at it for 34 years. Finding something to do during retirement won't be much of a problem!

writes genealogy books

Link with past begins

By DON BROADUS
Mississippi Press Staff

WADE — Melba Goff Allen walks beneath the ancient oak trees on property homesteaded by her grandfather here and imagines how it was.

Killing a hog when the weather first turns cold just before the meat in the smokehouse was gone, plowing the fields with horse-drawn implements, washing clothes in the river and draping them over a picket fence to dry, all are a part of how it was.

"I know I have lived at least once before," she said. "These things are too real to me not to have experienced them."

It was Mrs. Allen's link with the past, a love affair that began when she was a little girl, that has led to her authorship of five books, all dealing with genealogy.

Her latest book, The Goffs and Allied Families, was a labor of love since it deals with Mrs. Allen's own family. Just off the press of Land and Land Publishers of Baton Rouge, the book probably touches 90 percent of the 1950 population of Jackson County. The hardback book sells for $25.

"When I was just a little girl, I can remember being fascinated with the past," she said. "I would sit for hours and listen to my grandparents and other older people talk about the past. I always wanted to know more."

Mrs. Goff said she spent three years researchi her latest book and spent at least $10,000 on trips North Carolina, Virginia, Georgia and other places. "I even went to Salt Lake City to searcl through Mormon records."

The first Goffs in Jackson County were the children of William Goff, who fought in the Revolutionary War. They came here from Bullo County, Ga., along with the Carters, and settled the Pascagoula River just after the turn of the century.

Mrs. Allen has included in her book copies of letters written by Goffs of Jackson County to relatives in Georgia. The letters tell of their tri west, of conditions they found here and of fami births.

"I was lucky," Mrs. Allen said. "I found the letters in the library of Judge Folks Huxford in Georgia. William Goff arrived after his childre had already settled here. I found letters in Salt Lake City that William Goff wrote attempting t get his Revolutionary War pension."

It would be impossible to write of the genealo of the Goff family in Jackson County without touching the geneology of most of the other ear families who settled here.

Junior college fitness trail

New path to better health planned

By CAROL WADDELL

Gautier and area residents will soon be able to travel a new path to better health and physical fitness.

Combined efforts of the Jackson County Recreation Commission, the Board of Supervisors, and the Mississippi Gulf Coast Junior College will pay off when constuction of a one-half mile walking track gets under way at the college.

"For the past year we have talked about building a number of walking paths in different parts of the county," recreation commission member Hurley Ray Guillotte said. "We have been looking into the Gautier area for the right location. Several locations have been under consideration but our first choice was the junior college. The dean said that they wanted a path too, so the groups got together."

A petition was circulated among faculty and staff at the junior college in August by a group of staff members to determine interest for having fitness trail on campus. When over 150 names were presente to the administration, apporroval was given to purs the project.

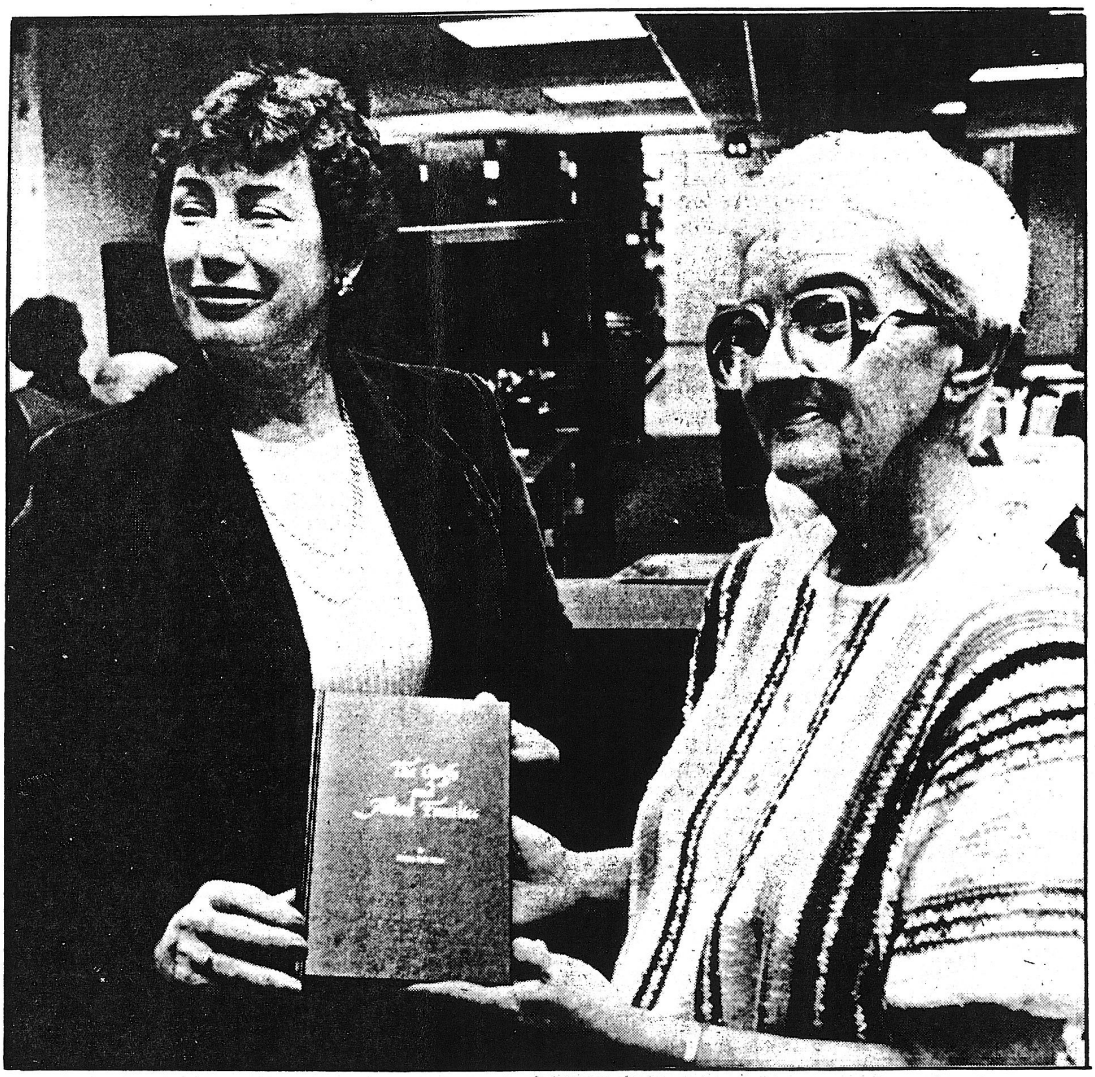

College personnel contacted the county and the merger of land, resources and plans bega

Simeon Cumbest, for example, came here from Florida in 1796 and settled on Cumbest Lake. His decendents married Goffs, Carters, Faggards and others.

Aaron Parker, the first of the Parker clan, reached Jackson County in 1809 with a passport from the governor of Georgia authorizing him to travel to the Mississippi Territory.

Capt. Francis Cunningham came here with Simeon Cumbest and married one of his daughters, Catherine.

These and other old Jackson County families, including the Faggards, Fletchers and Tanners, whom Mrs. Goff traces back to Germany to the name of Gerber, meaning leather in German.

The book begins in Georgia, pivots on Williams Price Goff and branches out through his 12 children.

"There are a lot of Goffs and the biggest portion of them are still right here in Jackson County," says Mrs. Allen.

The only child of Jennie Kenneth and Quincy Goff, to whom her book is dedicated, Mrs. Allen was graduated at Wade High School which sits on land donated for a community school by her grandfather, William Wesley Goff, who also once owned the land on which she now lives.

The former wife of Gene Allen, Mrs. Allen traveled extensively with her husband who was in the Air Force. The travel provided an opportunty for research, including that in Germany.

Mrs. Allen worked in the engineering department of NASA as a word processor in New Orleans and later served as merchandising manager for the New Orleans Breakers of the United States Football League.

"When the Breakers moved to the West Coast, I decided to sell my home and move back here," she said. "I wanted to write."

Her first book, published seven years ago, The Smiths, was on the decendents of John Smith of South Carolina who moved to Washington County, Ala., and to Marion County in Mississippi.

Her second book in 1982 was Colonial North Carolina and Georgia Families. It families included Goff, Cook, Carter, Mathis-Matthews, Williams, Rice, Price and Tanner families.

Another book, The McClendons of America, was the result of research she did for the McClendon family. There were a few skeletons in the family closet, like in most families. Mrs. Allen is not one to hide what the records show.

"Facts are facts," she said. "I don't believe in fixations. Finding the truth is what makes genealogy so interesting. No matter how hard you try to doctor your lineage, the deep-down truth is binding ..."

Mrs. Allen has already started working on her next book, volumne II of The Goffs and Allied Families.

And if that's isn't enough, serves as coordinator of the Family Letter and is assisti the Jackson County Genealo Society with its Jackson Co Families and Its History.

"When I get started, I car stop," she said. "Sometime work all night."

school days.

His playing for Vancleave High ended in 1972, when he moved to Prentiss, Miss., to live with an older brother in his junior year. The next year, his mother financed his first record, which was played on radio stations around Prentiss. Overstreet knew then that he had to pursue his dream of becoming a recording artist.

Shortly after he finished high school in 1973 he went to Nashville. But before breaking into the music world, his savings began to dwindle and he supported himself as a welder and with odd jobs. When he landed part-time work as a musician in Nashville's Printer's Alley entertainment district, he left his other jobs and concentrated full time on making music.

For the several years, he played with night club bands, including Dolly Parton's, but around 1978 he realized there was something wrong in his life.

"I was doing a lot of drinking," he admits. "I realized I was going nowhere and could rot in those clubs." One night, Overstreet said he prayed and promised God if he could get away from working in the clubs, he would quit drinking.

His first success came in 1982, when George Jones recorded his song, Same Ole Me, opening the door to an RCA recording contract. His first album was far from a hit with the record-buying public, but his life began taking a slow turn upward. In mid-1984 he began rediscovering his gospel roots in both his personal and professional life. He married the former Julie Miller, a hairstylist for contemporary Christian artist Amy Grant and kept his promise to the Lord.

"It took me seven years, but I finally quit drinking on the first day of 1985," Overstreet said. Soon after he was called back to Nashville and to work as a songwriter.

Randy Travis' Diggin' Up Bones, Forever and Ever Amen, On the Other Hand, No Place Like Home and Deeper Than the Holler; Long Line of Love by Michael Martin Murphy; Houston Solution by Ronnie Millsaps and Like Father, Like Son by Lionel Cartwright, are only a few of the more than 60 Paul Overstreet songs that have been recorded by other artists in the past five years.

His own singing career was launched as lead singer on the S.K.O. single You Can't Stop Love. He was part of a trio with Tanya Tucker and Paul Davis in I Won't Take Less Than Your Love, which he co-wrote with Don Schlitz.

Then he took off on his own and has had several hit singles, some of them spin-offs from his Sowin' Love album, including the title song and Love Helps Those, which made the top five on national singles charts, and All the Fun.

One of his songs, Billy Can't Read, about an illiterate factory worker, has been used in conjunction with the campaign for literacy. Overstreet has been so touched by stories of how people's lives were changed when they learned to read that he has personally volunteered to teach in literacy programs.

Overstreet began gaining national recognition for his work in 1987 and the accolades have not stopped. In that year he was named Nashville Songwriter Association International's Songwriter of the Year and BMI's Country Songwriter of the Year, an honor he has had for the past four years. On the Other Hand was voted Country Music Association Song of the Year and

PAUL OVERSTREET — 'There's a lot of things in life that are ugly, and if we dwell on them, we're going to be pretty sad. We have to learn to find the beauty in things. If it's beautiful to you, then it's worth writing about.'

Traditional Country Song of the Year by Music City News readers also in 1987. The next year, he and co-writer Schlitz won both a Grammy and CMA award for Forever and Ever Amen.

He often takes to the road in personal appearnaces, but after years of playing in bars and nightclubs, Overstreet now refuses to promote his songs in that atmosphere.

"Now I have children and they travel with me when I go on the road. I want it to have a meaning," he said. "I want my children to be part of what we do, and for them to be able to go with us. I don't want to go to a nightclub and say: Children, we only work here, because of the money. It's not okay for you to hang out here," he explained.

The growing Overstreet family consists of Nash, who will be 5 in January; Summer, 3; Chord, 2, and Harmony, who was born last May.

Although he's still a relatively new artist, Overstreet's future as a solo artist, as well as a songwriter, looks bright. It's his opinion, the writer of a song can best convey his own message. "I feel that a writer has more connection with a song than a artist who's not the writer," he says. "If the writer can sing and keep a melody, I think he can pull off the meaning to a song."

He feels his songs are appealing to the general public because they have a message based on traditional values, and because they are upbeat and uplifting. "It's a lot harder to write positive songs than it is miserable, heartbreaking, cheating songs, but we should encourage people toward things that are good for them," Overstreet said in a recent magazine interview. "There's a lot of things in life that are ugly, and if we dwell on them, we're going to be pretty sad. We have to learn to find the beauty in things. If it's beautiful to you, then it's worth writing about."

And these beautiful messages based on the family values of faith, joy, love and caring for others seem to flow from the pen of Paul Overstreet not just on Christmas, but 365 days a year.

With a song in their hearts

By REGINA HINES
West Jackson County Bureau Chief

God, home and family are priorities every day of the year for country singer-songwriter Paul Overstreet, not just during this season of love, peace and goodwill.

The award-winning songs written and sung by this busy Jackson Countian whose star is rising higher every year reflect these Christian values.

"I like to spend time with my wife and kids. That's where your wealth is. It's not money in the bank, or cows in the field. True value is your family and strengthening them and trying to be that person who can help them grow up and be a little more solid than you are because they got the support," Overstreet says.

"True value is your family"

Since his family has grown to four children, all under age 5, Overstreet and his wife, Julie, will be celebrating the birth of Christ at their home in Nashville, Tenn., this year. But they plan to slip away after Dec. 25 for a visit with the large Overstreet clan around Vancleave.

"Christmas is a joyous time for them and they'll be spending Christmas Day at home, but we're expecting them sometime over the holidays," his mother, Mary Lela Hatten of Vancleave, said. "They used to come home before they had so many children, but they stay in Nashville now."

Christmas has always been a special time for the Overstreets and it's a holiday filled with music and family fun. "I remember several Christmases that we'd gather around the piano and sing," recalls his sister, Edith Goff of Vancleave. "We listen to the (country music) countdown from New York for the top songs and dance under the pavillion outside," she said.

"At night we have fireworks — usually not on Christmas — but during the holidays," she said.

The family has always been supportive of Overstreet's talents. His grandmother, Joanna Havens, bought him his first guitar. "He has always been encouraged by family and friends. Even when he was little, we'd have campfires and his aunts and uncles would want him to bring his guitar and play and sing," Mrs. Hatten said.

Paul Overstreet's story is that of a hometown boy who has made a success of his life and given joy to others through his talents. But his string of hit records since the mid-1980s and did not come without hard work and years of waiting for that big break.

Overstreet, 35, grew up in Vancleave in a strong Christian home and sang in the church choir. His father is retired minister W.E. Overstreet of Vancleave.

His talents were budding even before he entered Vancleave School in 1961. "Paul was always coming up with things that seemed to rhyme. He always wrote poetry," his mother said. "Rhymes just seemed to roll off his tongue." As early as four years old, he could pick out tunes on the piano and easily learned to play other instruments.

Although music was his first love, most people around Vancleave remember him as a star quarterback on the football team during his

(1866-1949)

By Victor G. Clifford

The Reverend Matthew Russell Jones, son of Alfred F. Jones and Jane Carter Jones, was born in Jackson County, Miss., June 19, 1866, and died at Quitman, Miss., November 17, 1949.

Brother Jones was educated in the common schools of the communities where he lived. He was admitted on trial at Laurel, Miss., in December, 1906, with Bishop Ward presiding, having been licensed to preach by the Seashore District Conference meeting at Biloxi on April 27, 1895. He was also ordained a local deacon by Bishop Ward at the same 1906 Conference. He was admitted into full connection in the Mississippi Conference at Brookhaven, Miss., December 1909, with Bishop Hoss presiding; and was ordained elder by Bishop H. C. Morrison at Hazlehurst in December, 1912.

He was married three times:

1. To Lydia Evelyn Goff, who was the mother of Murdock Russell Jones, now at Quitman, and Minnie Lee Jones, deceased. They were married Dec. 20, 1888, and she died March 6, 1906.

2. To Evie Lena Hilton at Star, Miss., Mar. 18, 1908. She was the mother of Rev. Alfred Ladove Jones, Mary Esther, Rev. Joseph Woodrow Jones, and Samuel Porter Jones. She died in January, 1938.

3. To Datha Roberts, January 10, 1939. There were no children to this union and she is now living near Brookhaven, Miss.

Brother Jones served Americus Circuit in 1906 before being admitted on trial. His other appointments were: Pinola Circuit, 1907 and 1908; East Clarke Ct., 1909 and 1910; Stallo Ct., 1911 and 1912; Stallo and Indian Mission, 1913; McDonald, 1914; Raleigh Ct., 1915-1918; Rose Hill Ct., 1919-1922; Montrose, 1923-1925; Neshoba Ct., 1926-1928; Taylorsville and Mize, 1929; DeSoto Ct., 1930 and 1931; Shiloh Ct., 1932-1934; Leakesville Ct., 1935 and 1936; Bayou Pierre and Bogue Chitto, 1937. He superanuated at the Conference which met at Hattiesburg, Miss., Dec. 18, 1937, and made his home for several years at Brookhaven. After his last marriage in 1939, he moved to Quitman, where he lived until his death. He was buried at Quitman, Nov. 18, 1949.

Funeral services were conducted at the Quitman Methodist Church by his Pastor, Rev. Victor G. Clifford, assisted by Rev. J. W. Leggett, Jr., Rev. T. J. O'Neil, and Rev. M. H. Wells.

It was my privilege to be Brother Jones' pastor the last few years of his life. He was a great inspiration to me. He was a gentle soul who loved the Lord and the Church, upheld the hands of his pastor, and who was faithful in his attendance upon the services of the church and in his support of the church. He left a heritage of clean living and good works to the noble children who survive him.

"DAYS GONE BY"
by Betty Shumock

If you think we are experiencing economic difficulties today, you should just listen to Mrs Erie Goff talking about the hard times she had as a young girl and later as a widow with seven young boys to feed.

She remembers life at home as a young girl after her dad died and left her mother with a large family to support, as very difficult times. Her mother had to go to work at a canning factory at Lucy's Farm to help alleviate the family's needs. Erie, herself spoke about the period that she also worked at the factory.

She described Lucy's Farm, near Lucedale, as covering several thousands of acres. The land was planted in sweet potatoes, snap beans, and other vegetables. The many acres of land were cultivated by men working with an ole mule and plow, and all the vegetables were hand picked.

As the crops were harvested, they went directly to the factory for canning. There the ladies snapped all the beans or peeled the sweet potatoes and washed them in large vats, then they were ready to pack in cans.

They had a capping machine which would place the lids on the can and seal them. Erie talked about how she had to keep two cans at a time, fed as fast as she could onto the conveyor belt. After leaving the capping machine the cans would then be processed. After processing the cans were ready for the labels.

She remembered how the empty cans would arrive by the box car loads at the plant and someone would have to unload the cans. She said her mother was faster than even the men at unloading the cans. She was able to unpack a box car in one day's work.

Mr Woody Stone was manager over the factory. The ladies who worked on the farm were called farm helpers and those who worked inside the factory were called Mr Stones' helpers. Top salary at Lucy's Farm was $2.00 a day.

Erie married William Knox Goff and they had 5 sons. Mrs Goff had 2 sons by a previous marriage. They are: Dewy H. Havard, J.W. Havard, David E. Goff, Johnny C. Goff, Lester A. Goff, Dougless K. Goff and Felix Vernon Goff.

Erie's husband died in 1934 leaving her to provide for her 7 sons, the oldest being around 12 years of age.

She worked at many different jobs trying to provide just food and clothes for her family. When the Woolen Mill opened, Erie went to see the Board of Supervisors and talked to Mr Gautier about being hired at the mill. She plainly told him that she had to have a job and he could help get her on or "She and her seven children were coming to board with him." Needless to say, she got the job.

Erie said she was able to stay in one house in Pascagoula for about seven years without paying rent. A friend who was working for a lawyer found out that the house was tied up in court and could not be sold or rented. During these years she accepted boarders who paid her $4.00 a week for room and meals.

Not only did she continue to work at the Mill but she also cooked breakfast for her sons and boarders and packed the boys lunches for school. She said many a day she would come home from work to find the men home from their jobs waiting for their dinner which she would prepare.

At this time she was saving 25¢ out of every pay check (which came every two weeks) and saving what money she could from what she earned from her boarders.

Even though times were hard she felt that God was with her. One day as she was walking home she heard a voice speak to her and as she looked around realizing no one was near, she heard the voice again say "It's time you were buying a house. If you don't start now, you won't ever do any thing." Erie was thinking to herself, how can I buy a house and what with?

She had been looking at a little house with 5 acres of land in Escatawpa, but felt that she couldn't buy it. Every time she drove by Escatawpa she would go by to see it.

Finally, the house came up for sale and Erie (still with doubt in her heart) went by to talk to them about buying it. She found to her surprise that they were willing to finance the house for her on terms she could afford.. So for $400.00 down and a minimum payment every 6 months the house became hers. For 41 years Erie Goff has lived and raised her family in this house.

At 81 years, Mrs Goff seems to be full of life and eager to talk about the "days gone by."

Basin

Another worker would travel by horse to pick them up.

In late 1889, Gregory Marston Luce came to Plum Bluff, which is on the western side of the Pascagoula River and still considered the Basin area.

Luce, a Michigan furniture manufacturer, was searching for lumber to make furniture products, according to Jackson.

"He found it more valuable to sell (lumber) for building houses," said Jackson, who is also the author of By the Rivers of Water, one source of George County history.

Luce remained in what is now George County and erected several sawmills and established various other enterprises, one of which was the Ransom Luce and Son general mercantile store in Basin. The county seat, Lucedale, was named in his honor.

Basin's first post office was located next to the river and Eugenia C. Hood served as postmistress from 1887 until 1892 when Miss Sabra Helveston held the title for a portion of that year.

Luce took over as postmaster in 1892 and moved the office a few miles uphill off the riverfront, according to Jackson. John W. Story served as postmaster 1902 until 1905 when John B. Goff took the position. Nellie W. Goff was postmistress from 1915 until the office merged with Lucedale in 1922.

The first Basin School was a one-room, one-teacher school in the heart of Basin about a half mile from Luce's private "dummy" railroad line which ran northeast from the river.

The second old Basin Schoolhouse stood on Pleasant Hill Road and is the site of the community voting precinct today.

Mrs. Nelda Fairley Green was among eight students who finished in the first graduating class from Basin. She said that until 1929 only grades one through eight were educated in Basin and that high school students went to Lucedale.

In 1930 the old two-story elementary school was demolished and replaced with a brick facility which educated students through the ninth grade.

In 1931 the 10th grade was added. In 1932 the 11th was added and in 1933 grade 12 was offered.

This school system began during the late 19th century and survived until 1968 when intergration laws forced its consolidation with Lucedale High School. The Unified Private School at Basin was established that year but closed in the early 1970s.

Goff gets 20 years for Todd death

By RAINES RUSHIN
Managing Editor

On the wall in Carla Todd's Hickory Hills home is a picture of her late son, Kyle Todd who was killed Dec. 8, 2001, while he stood in the living room of his Gautier home.

Now, Todd's killer will have to have a similar picture hang on the wall of his jail cell for the next 20 years after a guilty plea sent him to jail last week.

Joseph Burton Goff, 20, was sentenced by Jackson County Circuit Judge Dale Harkey last week to serve 20 years in prison for Todd's murder after Goff entered a guilty plea to the manslaughter charge. After the sentencing, Harkey drafted an order to the Mississippi Department of Corrections to have a large photograph of Todd hung in whatever cell contained Goff for the duration of the sentence.

"This is so you will be reminded that the taking of any human life is a serious crime and somehow you will seek forgiveness," Harkey said in court. The picture is to be hung, unobstructed in Goff's cell, he ordered. If the photo or frame is damaged in any way, Goff will be found in contempt and face further charges.

Although initially charged with murder, Goff entered a plea agreement with Jackson County District Attorney Keith Miller and accepted the 20 year sentence as opposed to facing the possibility of life without parole.

Goff will have to serve 17 years of the sentence under Mississippi's truth in sentencing laws.

According to court records, Miller discussed the plea agreement with Todd's mother and she found it acceptable. During court, she did not have any sympathy for the sentence levied on the man who killed her son.

"When you took his life, you took a part of my life. You took a part of everyone's life," Carla Todd said during the closing minutes of the sentencing. "You hid in my front yard wearing a ski mask like an animal, waiting for a shot, and he got hit. You did it all on your own and what you did on Dec. 8 cost you your life, and when you are released from prison, I hope you enjoy your new life as a convicted felon."

Todd, 18 at the time, was shot and killed with a .44 magnum handgun while he stood in the living room of his family home. Todd, a former valedictorian and sports standout at Gautier High School, was home for Christmas from his freshman year at Louisiana State University when he was shot late in the evening Dec. 8.

Goff, another former GHS student, was arrested a few days later after a lengthy dragnet of Jackson County Sheriff's Office investigators. According to the reports released after the investigation closed, Goff was jealous of Todd's girlfriend, a former interest of his own, and waited outside Todd's home the evening of the shooting and fired a single shot through the large living room window when Todd came into view. The murder weapon has not been recovered.

Dear Lynn,

I am seeking information about Thomas Goff, Jackson Co., Florida in 1820-30s. The Goff family came from Duplin Co., NC a few decades ago.

Thomas Goff could be my GGG Grandfather and believed to have died in 1831, Jackson Co., Fla. His brother or nephew James Goff led many Goffs to your county from 1811-30, Jackson Co., Ms.

When Thomas Goff died in ca. 1831, he had children and I believed the Thomas Goff who married Esther Watson in Thomas County, Georgia in 1839 was his son.Since the distance between the two areas are reasonable.

I cannot find any information regarding Thomas Goff in Jackson Co., Fla except after his death (ca. 1831) he left three orphans. The children (his or his sister's?) were --anntte S. Goff, John L. Goff and Martha Jane Goff (are minors). They were adopted by Samuel Davis and Matthew Carter, Sept 1832. A McLendon, J.C.

Ms. Melba Goff Allen, Trussville, Al., a genealogist wrote that there was a Margaret Elizabeth Goff who came to Jackson Co., Ms, from Marietta, Fl, when her relatives died. She lived with the Goff's who descended from John Goff of Duplin, NC.

From Ms. Allen's book, there are unnumbered GOffs that live in your area in Mississippi.

Appreciate if you would help seek any Goffs that could be part of the family and/or identify the orphans, etc. Or you may also advice other references/connections.

Enclosed is a check for $8.00.

Thanks.

Wayne Joiner

Now to our Goff genealogy. I've been tracing my family tree for about 20 years. My dad started me out by telling me who his mother and her parents were. That's where I began. My dad always told me that his grandmother (Elizabeth) had married twice and there wasn't a man that could change her name. Confused? My dad always believed his grandmother's maiden name was Goff; that she married first to Wm. Goff, then to Ellis Goff. (how does the second husband of Ella Elizabeth Rogers Goff—Lazarus David Goff—connect to Ellis's family?) If my dad told me once he told me a hundred times. That was a big joke with him. Well, I found out that wasn't true and that her maiden name was Elizabeth Bertha Williams, and that she was illegitimate. Lou Goff Parrish gave me this information one day when I went to visit her in Vancleave, Miss. She told me Elizabeth and Ellen both were illegitimate since they were twins (b. July 11, 1845) and also Elizabeth's brother Van Buren Williams. No one seems to know the mother of these three children, only she and Phillip Freeman Williams weren't married. I do know that Phillip Williams was married at this time to a woman by the name of Savannah Elizabeth Graham and they had 10 children, but evidently Phillip wasn't satisfied, so he had a tryst with another woman which bore him three children: Elizabeth, Ellen, and Van Buren Williams.

The 10 children of Phillip and Savannah Williams were: Unknown Williams, Frank, Robert, Elizabeth, Martha Ann, John Bailey III, Isabella, William, Henrietta, & Mary Adell Williams. This Elizabeth was b. Sept. 25, 1838 and was married to Johnson Ware. Now, for a big surprise! This Mary Adell Williams was the 2nd wife of my dad's grandfather Elias Bonnell Smith. Small world, huh? So, that makes Elizabeth Bertha Williams and Mary Adell Williams half-sisters.

Does this get confusing or what?

Let me back up a bit when my dad went to the hospital to visit his aunt Ruth Goff Scott (my dad's sister, Ina, said that her dad talked about an Aunt Ruth??) who was the sister of my dad's mother Alice Delia Goff.(While he was visiting one time aunt Ruth whispered to my dad that his grandmother Goff was illegitimate. That took my dad by surprise and really didn't understand what she was talking about. Aunt Ruth was on her death bed and my dad couldn't comprehend what she was telling him; and he wasn't sure he had heard her right or whether she was just a little delirious. It turned out she was right when I interviewed Lou Parrish(Who were her parents-relative to Clyde Parrish in Vancleve?) which I have on tape.

Below you will find six generations of William Goff & five generations of Ellis Goff. If I have made some mistakes please be sure to let me know. If you see some dates, marriages, or spouses I have failed to enter let me know as I haven't got them.

Hope this helps. I'll close now for you comments.

Dear Librarian,

On the reverse of this letter is a photocopy of a photograph I own and would like to get more information about him. I belive him to be Sgt. Otis Goff of the 26th Infantry from Wade, Mississippi. He was killed in Sept. 1918 in France. Can you give me anymore information about Sgt. Otis Goff? Does he have an obitutary in the local paper in Sept. 1918? Any information you can give me would be greatly appreciated.

Enclosed is an SASE for your convenience.

GAUTIER — Hollywood seemed awed by Dorothy Dell Goff, boosting her as a major movie star in the 1930's, but the talented beauty who visited Gautier as a child is remembered today because of a Gautier family member.

After dropping her last name in a career move, Dorothy Dell starred in her first movie with child star Shirley Temple. She was also a friend of Dorothy Lamour, the dark-eyed female lead in the Bob Hope-Bing Crosby road pictures.

But like a comet blazing across the Silver Screen's night sky, Dell's stardom would be short lived.

Sadly, with Cary Grant waiting in the wings child star from learning of Dell's untimely death were thwarted after the news was blurted out to her. A closeness ignited by what Temple described as "my frolicsome cohort from Little Miss Marker," brought the tears in a timely moment when the tiny talented actress was scheduled to weep in her own movie.

Dorothy Dell hoofed her way up the ladder of fame as a childhood beauty pageant winner, raising the spectator that in some cases there is a method in the madness where mothers march young girls through child beauty pageants.

Dorothy's mother was the youngest of seven sisters of which two would be linked to the actress and another promising movie star, Dorothy Lamour. Lilly Davis Goff, the youngest sister, was the blonde bombshell's mother and posed beside her sister, Kate Davis Parsley, she was affectionately called by family members, even before she broke into the movies in the 1930's to star in "Little Miss Marker" with child actress Shirley Temple.

Dell who lived in Ocean Springs as a child and visited family members in Gautier when not flitting around Los Angeles or helping promote the career of Dorothy Lamour, had to be excited in 1934.

Fans and studio moguls were expecting Dell's career to zoom to a new highs equal to any movie actress then on the scene. She was preparing for her fourth movie to be filmed with Temple and actor Cary Grant.

Incredibly, the Mississippi beauty, a platinum blonde, was crowned Miss America as a teenager and won the title of Miss Universe.

It was almost like she was on a mad race to and Dorothy Lamour could accompany her. Then she vaulted to dancing in the Ziegfield Follies.

The spiraling movie career carried her into the arms of Adolph Menjou on screen and she was featured on the cover of Paramount magazine.

Gautier family remembers 1930s movie star

GAUTIER — Hollywood seemed awed by Dorothy Dell Goff, boosting her as a major movie star in the 1930's, but the talented beauty who visited Gautier as a child is remembered today because of a Gautier family member.

After dropping her last name in a career move, Dorothy Dell starred in her first movie with child star Shirley Temple. She was also a friend of Dorothy Lamour, the dark-eyed female lead in the Bob Hope-Bing Crosby road pictures.

But like a comet blazing across the Silver Screen's night sky, Dell's stardom would be short lived.

Sadly, with Cary Grant waiting in the wings to be the leading man in Dell's next film, she was killed in a traffic mishap and laid to rest in New Orleans.

She was only 19.

Gautier resident Ellen Thomas Green spoke of the fast paced-life the young starlet: Miss America beauty contest winner at 15 and a Paramount Pictures contract shortly thereafter.

Green's grandmother was Dell's aunt.

In her autobiography, Temple recounted bursting into tears when attempts to shield the child star from learning of Dell's untimely death were thwarted after the news was blurted out to her. A closeness ignited by what Temple described as "my frolicsome cohort from Little Miss Marker," brought the tears in a timely moment when the tiny talented actress was scheduled to weep in her own movie.

Dorothy Dell hoofed her way up the ladder of fame as a childhood beauty pageant winner, raising the spectator that in some cases there is a method in the madness where mothers march young girls through child beauty pageants.

Dorothy's mother was the youngest of seven sisters of which two would be linked to the actress and another promising movie star, Dorothy Lamour. Lilly Davis Goff, the youngest sister, was the blonde bombshell's mother and posed beside her sister, Kate Davis Parsley, grandmother of Green along with five other sisters in the same photo.

Shaped from the same mold as Bob Hope's leading lady in a host of "road movies," Lamour met Dell in New Orleans , sharing high school days but pursuing a glamour trail that would rocket them to the top as Hollywood actresses.

"My grandmother lived in Gautier and was sister of the mother of Dorothy Dell," said Green as she displayed pictures of the family.

There was something special about Dot, as she was affectionately called by family members, even before she broke into the movies in the 1930's to star in "Little Miss Marker" with child actress Shirley Temple.

Dell who lived in Ocean Springs as a child and visited family members in Gautier when not flitting around Los Angeles or helping promote the career of Dorothy Lamour, had to be excited in 1934.

Fans and studio moguls were expecting Dell's career to zoom to a new highs equal to any movie actress then on the scene. She was preparing for her fourth movie to be filmed with Temple and actor Cary Grant.

Incredibly, the Mississippi beauty, a platinum blonde, was crowned Miss America as a teenager and won the title of Miss Universe.

It was almost like she was on a mad race to squeeze out every ounce of life without ever looking back.

Evelyn Green grew up a railroader's daughter with a family pass to ride trains free to New Orleans and lived in a house built by the railroad, but counted on her knowledge of Dorothy Dell based on words repeated by her own mother.

One story handed down was that Dorothy insisted on a Vaudeville show that wanted the beauty so bad it agreed that her mother, sister and Dorothy Lamour could accompany her. Then she vaulted to dancing in the Ziegfield Follies.

The spiraling movie career carried her into the arms of Adolph Menjou on screen and she was featured on the cover of Paramount magazine.

Cast as a dockside salon girl in the movie "Wharf Angel," the Mississippi beauty drew rave reviews for her acting skills and deep singing voice, headed for star treatment.

Quizzed about her love life, Dell quipped: "I want to fall in love so hard that I shall give up my career for it.... but not to a movie actor."

Her last film was a musical comedy. Seriously injured in a 1932 car mishap, she insisted on being driven and was killed returning from a California party driven by her boyfriend, a doctor.

Green remembers a Gautier where fresh meat could be sold only on the weekend because there was no ice to preserve it, radio was a major entertainment source and she also can recall her mother's stories of an actress on the fast track.

At present, however, the lumberman appears to be keenly alive to the necessity for conservation of timber and reforestation of cut-over areas. In fact, such a movement among the lumbermen has been under way in several states for quite a while.

At a convention in Chicago, the National Lumber Manufacturers' Association commended the interest in reforestation being taken by the government of many states. A resolution adopted by the convention said:

"We urge continuance of this interest and co-operation, both public and private, to bring about sound conditions for perpetuating our forest industry."

Better means of fire protection in existing forests were also recommended, as well as favorable tax measures to encourage private forest-growing enterprises.

It is fortunate that this matter is engaging the attention of the country at large to a greater extent than ever before. No natural resource is more essential to our national welfare than our forests.

GASOLINE INSPECTION PROGRESSING NICELY

The following figures given by the Department of Agriculture, Gasoline Division, shows that there are 336 wholesale stations and 3946 retail stations that have reported to date as required under the Gasoline Inspection law passed by the last session of the Mississippi Legislature. There are 7,060 pumps in use with a total of 714 wholesale tanks. These figures are incomplete, but show splendid progress in complying with the law. The department is receiving splendid co-operation on the part of dealers in gasoline and oils.

It has been known for years that Mississippi has been the dumping ground for low grade gas and oil that could not be sold in other states and it is expected that this department will render a good service to the state in its supervision and inspection.

He tells us that he could get longer cane now but on account of the wind it has blown down. He has about half acre in cane and the cane he brought in is a very fair average of the crop.

The time is now, for the City Fathers to arrange for some permanent street work. The money is well spent when invested in good roads or streets and the average tax payer never kicks on high taxes when it is judiciously used. The streets should be graded and made permanent, even if it costs more. Little piles of sand shoveled into the low places will never make good streets, and is a waste of money.

Four hurt in Vancleave accident

VANCLEAVE — An eight-year-old girl is hospitalized and three other persons required emergency room treatment after a one-car accident at 9:52 a.m. Wednesday on Old River Road just south of Mount Pleasant Road.

Rebecca McMillan, Thrasher Lane, Vancleave, was undergoing surgery Wednesday afternoon in Ocean Springs Hospital. Her condition was said to be stable.

According to unofficial reports, she suffered a severe facial laceration, a broken collarbone and, probably, a concussion.

Jennifer M. Burnham, 20, 1900 Montcliff Drive, Ocean Springs (Vancleave), driver of the car, and her other passengers, Keisha McMillan, 10, Thrasher Lane, Vancleave, and Cameron Justin Burnham, 3, were released from the same hospital after emergency room treatment.

The McMillan sisters are the driver's nieces and the three-year-old boy is her son, investigators said.

Mrs. Burnham and Rebecca both were thrown from the car during its plunge off the road. Mrs. Burnham was not wearing a seatbelt but her three passengers were, according to reports.

Deputy Sheriff Kenny Broadus said the car was going north on Old River Road when it left the roadway on the right side, shot off the left side of the road when the driver over-corrected, ran through a barbed wire fence and sideswiped three pine trees.

Broadus said the impact with the second pine tree spun the car around so that it slid backward into a group of trees.

The officer said the investigation is continuing and charges are pending. He said his investigation indicates that excessive speed and improper driving contributed to the accident.

The car is a total loss.

Gasoline which spilled from the wreckage posed another hazard and onlookers had to be kept away from the scene.

Mary Goff Home Burns To Ground At Wade Friday

The eight-room home of Mrs. Mary Goff at Wade burned to the ground and all the contents were lost in a fire which broke out on the roof Friday.

Mrs. Goff was at work when the fire occurred, but her son and daughter-in-law and their children were at home.

The son Edgar, however, was in the field and the daughter-in-law and children were in the yard.

The fire was discovered by a passer-by who gave the alarm and helped try to salvage some of the furnishings and clothing.

Flames spread through the old frame building so quickly that practically nothing was saved.

The fire was believed to have begun after flames started up in the chimney from burning trash in the fireplace, relatives of the family said, and the blaze quickly ignited wooden shingles on the roof.

In addition to the house and its contents, a shed in the yard where Mrs. Goff had stored between 400 and 500 quarts of canned goods was also destroyed.

Mrs. Goff and Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Goff and family are at present living in camp cars from the lumber mill owned by her late husband, Wesley Goff, who died about two years ago. 10-3-52

HOLD SUSPECT UNDER GUARD

Excited Californians Talk of Lynching Man Accused of Killing Five With Knife.

Susanville, Calif., June 12—(AP)—Excitement over the mass slaying of five persons in Susanville—where killings have not been uncommon in the past—ran high today as officers guarded Peter Alosi, 45, suspected of the wild knife slaughter.

Reports of a possible lynching attempt by grim and silent lumberjacks and ranchers who gathered in the streets caused authorities to take special precautions. Six heavily armed deputy sheriffs, kept watch at the county jail where Alosi was held.

An inquest into the wholesale slayings—in which Joe Fazio, a country grocer, his wife and their grown daughter and son and a woman neighbor were slashed down—was set for today.

Veteran officers, who recall many acts of violence in this mountain valley, dating back to the time citizens of California and Nevada fought a boundary-line war on the streets of Susanville, expressed amazement at the slayer's brutality.

BODY DISMEMBERED

The 45-year old grocer was hacked to death in the bathroom of his home and his body dismembered in the bathtub. His 45-year-old wife and their son, John, 26, were struck down just outside the bathroom, apparently as they were about to intervene.

Outside the home, where they were encountered by the blood-thirsty knife weilder as he fled under cover of night, were left the mutilated bodies of the daughter Sadie, 22, and the neighbor at whose home she had been visiting, Mrs. Lena Amistani, 42.

District Attorney Grover C. Julian said he expected to place a murder charge against Alosi, a lumber mill worker, who allegedly fashioned the razor-edged death weapon from a planing tool.

Alosi, reported to be a cousin of the slain grocer, repeatedly protested his innocence despite charges of officers that he was seen making the crude knife and was discovered washing blood from his clothes.

TALKED ABOUT CASE

The District Attorney said Alosi "had talked quite a bit" about the case "but I am not in a position now to say that I have received a complete and unqualified confession of guilt from him."

Authorities said Alosi, who recently sent his wife and two children to Boston, was reported to have had trouble recently with Fazio. Neighbors said Fazio has objected to attentions Alosi had assertedly shown Mrs. Fazio or her daughter.

Body Will Arrive Thursday Morning, Relatives Are Advised and Definite Plans for Interment Are Made.

The body of Dorothy Dell Goff, motion picture star, will arrive in Gulfport Thursday morning aboard the Louisville and Nashville railroad Train No. 4, 10:55, and burial will be in the Handsboro cemetery Friday afternoon, telegrams from Mr. and Mrs. Elbert Goff, parents of the dead girl, this morning stated. The messages were to Lee L. Davis of 25th avenue, Gulfport, brother of Mrs. Goff. Similar telegrams had been received at Gulfport following the tragic death in an auto accident Friday morning near Pasadena, Cal.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Davis are making local arrangements for the funeral. The body will be taken from the train to the Reimann Undertaking Parlors on 25th avenue, and will remain there until the funeral service Friday afternoon, 2:30 o'clock, at the Reimann chapel, with Rev. Clyde Gunn, pastor of the Handsboro Methodist church and of the Second Methodist church, Gulfport, of which Mr. and Mrs. Davis are members, officiating. Interment will be in the Handsboro cemetery beside the late Dave Davis, maternal grandfather of the picture star.

The body of Dorothy Dell Goff will be buried in a vault above ground, in accordance with the request of her mother who was born and reared in Handsboro and although having resided in Hattiesburg and several Coast towns, later in New York and more recently in California, yet calls Handsboro "home." Her first messages to relatives after the tragedy said "we are bringing Dorothy home for burial," and "home" meant in her mind, Handsboro.

Mr. and Mrs. Davis were engaged today in notifying various members of the families and other relatives in this section and conferring with them regarding arrangements.

Mrs. Goff's telegram was sent from Indio, Cal., en route from the West to the south and, follows: "Dorothy, Helen and I are on our way home for good. Mrs. Ates' sister is with me. Shall need you all. Please stand by me. Shall not be in rush to put her away but try to carry out Elbert's orders. Think it best to take her to a chapel. Love Lil." Helen is the only sister of Dorothy Dell Goff. Accompanying them is the sister of Mrs. Roscoe Ates, wife of the comedy picture star, former Hattiesburg residents. Elbert is the father of the dead girl.

Mr. Goff wired from Pasadena where he is remaining to clear up matters before returning to Mississippi. His message follows: "Your telegram received. We're bringing Dot to Gulfport. Arriving about 10 a. m. Thursday. Please select suitable site in same cemetery as Granddaddy Davis at Handsboro. It is Lillie's wish that Dot not be buried under ground. Therefore please arrange for an appropriate vault. Also arrange with undertaker. Lillie doesn't want burial until following day and it is desired that very brief Methodist church services be held. Please be governed accordingly. Elbert."

Surviving Dorothy Dell Goff in this section are a large number of relatives including the four brothers and six sisters of Mrs. Goff and the parents of Mr. Goff and his one brother and three sisters. Mrs. Goff's brothers and sisters follow: Lee L. Davis, Gulfport; Miss Elizabeth Davis, Handsboro; Mrs. H. F. Wells, Handsboro; Joe Davis, Biloxi; Dave Davis of Ocean Springs; W. H. Davis aboard the Coast Guard boat, Active, Pascagoula; Mrs. J. E. Parsley, Pascagoula; Mrs. C. B. Scrivner, Hattiesburg; Mrs. J. J. Pixey, Kirbyville, Texas; and Mrs. E. B. Townsend, Mexico City. Mr. Goff's parents are: Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Goff of Moss Point. He has a brother, "Son" Goff of New Orleans, and three sisters, Mrs. Tim Rogers and Mrs. Clinton Roberts of Moss Point, and Mrs. Nona Lynd of Hattiesburg.

J. O. Goff Drowns In Dog River Near Wade, Thursday

James Otis Goff, 26 years old, was drowned in Dog river when he fell into the water Thursday. The body was not recovered until Monday.

An inquest was held by Coroner H. A. Fails and the coroner's jury returned the verdict of "death by drowning." Members of the jury were P. B. Johnson, R. L. Goff, W. J. Atwell, S. E. Hamilton, P. C. Johnson and N. C. Everett. According to Mr. Fails there were no witnesses to the accident who were available to give testimony at the inquest.

The body was recovered by Donald Hamilton, B. B. Baria, W. D. Holder and Hayward Cunningham. Funeral services were conducted Tuesday by Fails Funeral Home and interment was in Johnson cemetery at Wade.

Goff, who was a resident of Wade, is survived by his mother, Mrs. Azaline Goff; his widow, Mrs. Vivian Goff; four children, Mary, Rosetta, Jerry and Henry H. Goff, all of Wade; five brothers, Marcus of Agricola, Willie, Bruner, R. D. and Woodson W. Goff, of Wade; and four sisters, Mrs. Viola Cunningham, Big Point; Mrs. Renie Carvin and Mrs. Arnilla Burch, Panama City, and Mrs. Laura Lovelace, Wade.

Hall seems to be most inconvenient, both to the firemen and to the people who have business on Delmas avenue. It is suggested that this location is extremely desirable for a court room. If the city provided a new building for the firemen, it might be possible to move the firemen away from Delmas avenue to a better location, and use the present build-

Pascagoula Post Office Now Selling New Postal Notes

Postal notes, a new service of the money order department of the post office, went on sale at the Pascagoula post office February 1st.

"We expect the public to benefit in time and money by the new postal notes," Postmaster Arthur V. Smith stated, "as the notes will be a quicker and less expensive way of sending $10 or less through the mail."

"There are no applications to fill out with the purchase of the notes, and simplified methods of bookkeeping and sale make it possible to handle the notes for a uniform fee of 5 cents," the postmaster said.

Mr. Smith stated that he expects the public to take advantage of the notes, but warned that persons purchasing the notes take care in removing their receipt stubs so that the stub where stamps are affixed, between the main postal note and the receipt, it not detached.

The postmaster explained that the notes will go on sale at Eastlawn and Station 1 later in the month.

IN MEMORY OF OUR MOTHER MRS. MARY SCHWAB

On this sweet day of February
One year ago today
You left us and passed away.
We are not very good at poetry
But our memory with others
We like to share.
We are sre you are happy
With loved ones over there
Mother, you always said "Don't Bring your flowers till I am dead,"
Though this might be better if left unsaid.
The flowers we brought each week of the past year were not expensive,
Some with beauty not rare.
Though you could not touch them
Nor smell their fragrance so fair
We are sure you knew of their presence there.
Sadly missed by children, Mr. Jim Ehlers, Mrs. Harry Thompson and Mr. Bill Ehlers.

Full Military Honors To Mark Services For First Returned County War Dead

The body of Marine Sergeant James O. Goff, first of the county's dead from World War II to be returned home, lies in state today at the Fails Funeral Home in Moss Point and will be buried on Sunday with full military honors with a memorial service dedicated to him and to all the county's sons who fell in the defense of their country.

The flag-draped steel casket arrived in Gulfport on Tuesday with wounded, heavily decorated Marine Staff Sergeant Ernest L. DeFazio as escort. Each branch of the service provides its own escort for their war dead.

The body was met in Gulfport by a guard of honor composed of Harold Seaman, commander of the American Legion and Navy veteran; Floyd C. Campbell, former infantry man with the U. S. Army; H. C. DeLoach, veteran of the Army Air Corps; and Harold Caddell, Jr., former Coast Guardsman.

At the funeral and memorial services on Sunday, which will be held at the Jackson Cemetery in Wade, the Clifton McKelly Williams Post of the Veterans of Foreign Wars will furnish active pall bearers and the Elmer Joseph Grant Post, American Legion Post No. 160, and the Disabled American Veterans will furnish honorary pall bearers.

All veterans are requested to attend the funeral services on Sunday, in uniform if possible, and veterans and the general public are invited to pay their respects prior to the funeral services. Families of veterans and the next of kin of war dead are also asked to pay tribute.

Sergeant Johnson was a native of Wade and enlisted in the U. S. Marine Corps in December, 1939. He was killed in action in May, 1943, when he was 28 years of age and his remains were returned from the U. S. Military Cemetery, Schofield Barracks, Oahu Island, Territory of Hawaii.

He was the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. obert L. Goff of Wade and is survived by two brothers, Harvey L., of Wade and William L. of Eastside. His grandfather, Will Goff of Wade, also survives.

...Six Candidates In Race For Vacant Seat

Jackson county voters will join with the rest of the state in selecting a United States Senator to fill Mississippi's vacant Senate seat, and at the same time ratify the Democratic nominees for state, district, county and beat officers named at the last primary election when they go to the polls Tuesday to take part in the state general election.

Polls in Pascagoula will be open from 7 a. m. to 6 p. m. and in all other county precincts from 8 a. m. to 6 p. m. The same polling places as used in the last primary election will be used in Tuesday's general election.

Voters will have their choice of six candidates in selecting a senator to fill the seat made vacant by the death of the late Theodore G. Bilbo, five Democrats and one Republican.

Six Candidates

Heading the ticket will be W. M. (Bill) Colmer of Pascagoula, present Sixth District congressman, followed in order by Forrest Jackson, attorney for the late Senator Bilbo; Paul B. Johnson, Jr., of Hattiesburg, young World War II veteran and unsuccessful candidate for governor in the last primary election; John E. Rankin of Tupelo, First District congressman; John C. Stennis of De Kalb, circuit judge of the Sixteenth District, and L. R. Collins, Republican candidate for the seat.

Indications throughout the state are that the vote will be light compared to the more than 300,000 ballots cast in the governor's race in the Democratic primary on August 5th.

The state Republican party has also entered candidates for governor and lieutenant-governor, George L. Shelton and Ernest J. Hoskins, who will offer token opposition to the Democratic nominees, Fielding L. Wright and Sam Lumpkin.

Qualifications for voting in the general election will be the same as those governing the primary elections, with the exception that voters do not have to show poll tax receipts or exemption certificates at the polling places. However, these must be in order for the elector to qualify to vote.

Plans Underway For "Messiah" Concert Here

Plans are under way for the traditional Christmas-season performance of Handel's "Messiah" by local singers and rehearsals have already begun for the event.

The rendition of this immortal work is a community wide project, sponsored this year by the choir of the First Baptist church of Pascagoula. Members of the "Messiah Choir" are drawn from the surrounding community and Director C. R. Haire is extending an invitation to all singers in the surrounding area to join the choir.

The performance is scheduled for the week before Christmas, it was stated, and it is imperative that all who wish to do so, join the rehearsals as soon as possible.

Rehearsals will be held in the auditorium of the First Baptist church on Monday and Thursday evenings at 7:30. In addition, the regular rehearsals of the First Baptist church choir on Wednesday evenings at 7:45 will be largely devoted to practice on this program. All members of the "Messiar" Chorus who can attend these rehearsals are urged to come.

There is still time for any singer who has sung this oratio of who is familiar with it to join the chorus. Anyone who is interested is asked to contact Mr. Haire, director.

County Pays Tribute To First War Dead To Be Returned From Overseas

The first of Jackson County's World War II dead to be brought home from overseas ended the long journey here last week and was laid to rest on Sunday in the Johnson cemetery in Wade.

Hundreds of persons, including a large number of his comrades-in-arms who appeared in uniform as honorary pallbearers, gathered to pay tribute to the memory of Marine Sergeant James O. Goff and to all the county's sons who lost their lives in the service of their country.

Uniformed veterans served as pallbearers, guard of honor, and firing squad and conducted a memorial service for all war dead prior to funeral services for Sergeant Goff.

Commander Harold Seamen of American Legion Post No. 160 conducted the memorial service with the assistance of the Rev. W. C. Wyatt, pastor of the Wade Baptist church. Commander Henry Lynd of the Clifton McKelly Williams Post, Veterans of Foreign Wars, was assisted in ceremonies at the grave by District Commander Karl Wiesenburg of Pascagoula.

Mayor F. W. Cirlot of Moss Point, a former army sergeant, also took part in the ceremony.

The flag-draped casket lay in state at the Fails Funeral Home in Moss Point from Tuesday until Sunday and a large number of friends and relatives of Sergeant Goff and veterans and members of their families called to pay tribute.

A mile-long procession of automobiles followed the casket to the cemetery. Following the services, which included the firing of three volleys over the grave and the playing of "Taps", the flag was folded and handed to Harvey L. Goff by Marine Staff Sergeant Ernest L. DeFazio, escort sent here with the body.

Mr. Goff and another brother, William L. Goff of Eastside, were Sergeant Goff's next of kin.

IN MEMORIAM
In Memory of Our Father
Mr. Lyman Goff
On His Birthday, April 24th
Who died April 29, 1943

This is your birthday, Papa dear,
Not as it used to be,
The gladness of the day is gone
You are not here to see.
For you are in your lonely grave
And our tears are all in vain,
But, oh, Papa, how happy we would be
To have you back again.

Although your soul is now at rest
And free from care and pain
This world would seem like heaven
If we had you back again.
But still we say "His Will be done"
Your soul is with the blest
And we who grieve for you today
Are some who loved you best.

Your voice that is silent forever
In memory comes to us still,
The heart that was fond and kind ever
It's memory time cannot kill.
God took you, Mama and Annie to heaven
Three fond hearts "gone away,"
Three good souls in his keeping
God grant we will be with you some day.

Going to the country is only sadness
Since three loved ones have gone away
Three precious smiles gone forever
Precious thoughts flow your way.
Although you are with ones we love
It does not ease our pain.
But our loss of three
Is truly heaven's gain.

Sadly Missed by Son,
Daughters, Sons-in-law and Grandchildren.

Chicken or the Egg, Egg or the Chicken, Which Comes First?

The old riddle of which came first, the chicken or the egg, is further muddled in a freak of nature which Mrs. D. M. Goff of Escatawpa discovered a few days ago. She purchased some eggs at a grocery store and was in the act of making some pies when she broke one of the eggs in a saucer to discover that inside the shell was a perfectly formed, egg with yolk and white, also a well-formed baby chick and a small amount of blood.

Mrs. Goff brought the strange combination up to the office of the Chronicle-Star Thursday where it was viewed and her claims established.

We had the proof that such a strange combination existed but we are no closer to the solution of which was first, especially since we find both at the same time.

engaged in an argument over family troubles. The affair took place Monday afternoon, February 19, in front of the fruit and lunch stand belonging to W. J. Cooper, on Lincoln avenue. Cooper fired five shots, one taking fatal effect on William Flynn and one wounding Mrs. Michael Flynn, mother of William, in the thigh. Witnesses at the hearing testified that shots were fired from the store at Cooper after he had left the building, and Cooper claimed that he acted in self defense.

The defendant was represented by Messrs. Denny & Heidelberg, while County Attorney Wm. Colmer conducted the prosecution. Eight witnesses were examined, among them being W. J. Cooper, proprietor of the fruit stand, his wife, Mrs. William Flynn, wife of the slain man, and his father, youngest sister, Katie, and brother, Charlie. Other witnesses had been subpoened, but were not called.

The courthouse was crowded throughout the hearing, which lasted from 10 o'clock in the morning until after 3 o'clock in the afternoon, with an hour and a half recess at noon. The state asked that the defendant be held without bail.

Cooper will be tried at the next term of circuit court which will be some time in April.

20th Century Schools

The Evergreen School (ca 1900-1916?)

The Evergreen School existed in the early part of the 20th Century in the John's Bayou region east of Vancleave. It was very probably located in the SW/4 of Section 24, T6S-R7W, although in October 1912, Albert and Druisilla Goff sold for $2, to the trustees of this school one acre in the NE/4,SE/4 of Section 14, T6S-R7W. (JXCO Land Deed Bk. 41, pp. 619-620)

In the 1900-1901 school session, Eunice Havens taught 31 students from the Ware, McMillan, Roberts, Barnes, Booker and Noble families. She earned $25 per month. Other educators of the Evergreen School between 1902 and 1916 were Fannie Maie Carter, Lena Phillips, Delia Graham, Lula Graham, Mamie Farr, Helen C. Starks, Theresa Starks, Mary Starks, Laura Ott, Kate Pinson, E. Dickerson and V. Barlow. Local families to send their children to this institution during its existence were Rogers, Phillips, Wattson, Tanner, McMillan, Carter, Goff, Barnes, Carlander, Benson, Cochran, Ware and Roberts. (Jackson County Archives, Pascagoula, Mississippi-Evergreen School open files)

The Vancleave Academy

In November 1902, Vancleave pioneer citizen Willis Broadus (1834-1919) sold 1/4 acre to the trustees of the Vancleave Academy. This school tract was located in the SE/4, NW/4 of Section 9, T6S-R7W. (JXCO Land Deed Bk. 32, pp. 563-564). School records in the Jackson County Archives at Pascagoula indicate that the Vancleave School of 1906-1907 was taught by Lena Carson.

There were 31 students with over 30 percent of the children from the Juan, Broadus, Martin and Lockard families. The others represented the families of Trehern, Morris, Havens, Rouse and Frances. It is not known with a high degree of certitude if these two institutions, the Vancleave Academy and Vancleave School, were one and the same. No further information.

The 1st Vancleave High School (1907-1942)

In August 1907, Willis Broadus (1834-1919) sold one acre in the instituted at the high school. (WPA for Miss., (1936-1938), p. 286)

A home, known as the Smith-Hughes home, from a legislative act which funded agricultural education, was erected for the agricultural teacher. The lot for this structure was probably acquired from the Dantzler Lumber Company. It was situated on the east side of Highway 57 in the SW/4, NE/4 of Section 16, T6S-R7W. The Vancleave Public Library occupies this site today.

A study hall for the high school students, which was united by a breezeway to the teacher's home, was added after the destructive 1942 fire. When the library was erected in 1988-1989, the agricultural teacher's home was moved to Breeland Road and is now the residence of Lewis Faulk. In approximate chronological order, some of the former agricultural teachers at Vancleave High School were: Mr. Thomson, Leland Able, Mr. Beechum, Solomon F. Davis, C.R. Brown, O.K. Breland and Mr. McClesky. (Kip Dees, December 14, 1998)

By the mid-1930s, the school was designated as the Vancleave Consolidated Vocational High School. The institution was the beneficiary of government aid in its vocational agriculture and home economics courses. Special instruction was given in household arts, domestic training, music, physical culture, shorthand, typing and book keeping. Elementary, junior and senior high classes were held in the same schoolhouse.

The Vancleave High School had an excellent library for its pupil ratio. In 1936, there were over 3,000 volumes. V.G. Humphrey and Miss Susie W. Vaughn (1869-1972) were leaders in this endeavor. They assisted in the formation of the Vancleave Library Association which met monthly to promote the school and improve the library. It served as a surrogate for a Parent-Teachers Association which did not exist at the time. Extra-curricular activities at the school consisted of drama and debate clubs, the Hi-Y and the Girl Reserves. A cafeteria served W.P.A. lunches. (WPA for Miss. (1936-1938), p. 289)

The old Vancleave High School burned late in the evening of May 20, 1942. Arson was suspected. (The Jackson County Times, May 23, 1942, p. 1, c. 5) From 1942 until

Miss Brown is bride of Mr. Goldman

WADE — Tina Louise Brown and Robert Glenn "Bobby" Goldman were united in marriage Sept. 27 in an evening ceremony at Caswell Springs United Methodist Church of Wade, with the Rev. M.L. McCormick Jr. officiating.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James M. (Patricia) Brown Jr. of Harleston, and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Roy V. (Dora) Goldman of Big Point.

Music for the double ring, candlelight vows was offered by organist Ida Mae Cumbest and pianist Paula Goff, both of Wade, and vocalist Debbie Wildman of Helena. Guests were registered by Tracy Churchwell of Harleston.

Escorted by her father, the bride wore formal white satin, its fitted bodice fashioned with a mandarin collar, sheer yoke and sweetheart neckline, all lavishly embellished with Chantilly lace, seed pearls and iridescents.

Renaissance sleeves began in poufs of satin at the shoulders, and tapered to sleeves worked with motives of lace and pearls, ending in bridal points over the hands.

The full skirt fell in soft gathers from a natural waist to a scalloped hem, with appliques of the lace used lavishly. The train was designed with rows of Chantilly lace, and swept from the waistline to a cathedral length.

Her headpiece was a tiara of pearls and white silk flowers, which held in place fingertip veils of illusion, sprinkled with pearls.

She carried cascading miniature carnations, mauve and rose sweetheart rosebuds, white cymbidium orchids and pearls, tied with satin ribbons ending in love knots.

Lesley Cochran served her cousin as maid of honor and bridesmaids were Charrie McQueen of Wade and Janice Flurry of Lucedale, with Jennifer Brown, sister of the bride, as junior bridesmaid. Flower girl was Harriet Goff, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Goff.

Steve Bryan of Escatawpa was best man and groomsmen were Steve Marks and Doug Grant of Pascagoula, with Bengie Goff, cousin of the bride, as junior groomsman. Ringbearer was Savie Goff, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ebbie Goff and cousin of the bride.

Ushers, who also lighted candles, were Lee Goff, uncle of the bride, and Jerry Ladnier of Harleston.

A reception, directed by Gaynell Rudolph of Wade, followed at the church, where guests were registered by Ms. Churchwell. Ashley Goff and Nicole Goff, cousins of the bride, distributed bags of birdseed.

Tea girls were Gloria Goff and Luanne Goff of Harleston, Janice Goff of Pascagoula, Sandra Goff of Rainsville, Ala., and Mary Brown of Creole, Ala., all aunts of the bride.

After a wedding trip to Pensacola, Fla., the couple is at home in Helena. On the eve of the wedding, the parents of the bridegroom hosted a rehearsal dinner at the church.

INTERVIEW WITH MR. LEWIS.

Says Business Is Good On the Sea-coast, and Is Little Effected By the Panic; Grows Eloquent Over the Products of His County and Its Exhibits.

Clarion-Ledger November 10th.

"The Gulf Coast country is all right and continues to lead all other sections of the State in progress and development, panic or no panic, which by the way is having little or no effect, down our way," said Frank Lewis to a reporter of the Clarion-Ledger.

"It is true we are inconvenienced some little in the transaction of business by the restriction of withdrawals of funds from the banks forced on our local institutions by the banks throughout the country, but our people have complete faith in the resources of the Coast country and know its lands and resources to be good collateral to protect not only themselves, but future generations, and are moving along as usual in producing lumber, can goods, fruit, syrup, nuts and general farm products and supplying to the country at large all of these and the finest fish, oysters and shrimp that the sea produces anywhere in the world."

"What about last year's business?"

"Last year we exported nearly 300,000,000 feet of lumber and this year the figures will far exceed those. In Jackson county and at Pascagoula, all our great saw mill are running full time, labor is in good demand, the farmers are busy harvesting their crops, saving hay and making syrup, the cattle and sheep are fat and sleek and hogs are waiting killing time. The Government is going right along with the dredging of the ship channel from the mills at Moss Point to the Gulf, eighteen feet having already been obtained, $200,000 more now available with $400,000 yet to the credit of the project. Steam ships load with two to two and a half million feet of lumber at the mills in the ideal natural land locked harbor at Pascagoula; the Denny road is within six miles of the M. J. & K. C. railroad, its connection therewith in the next ninety days meaning a northern outlet for the Port of Pascagoula, with the several trunk lines north of us."

"What about your railroads?"

"The Mississippi Central will take up the extension of the road south of Hattiesburg to the Port of Pascagoula this winter as soon as the Natchez end is completed, thus giving us a

A Growing Industry.

Among the many enterprises in this section, and one which gives employment to a large number of workmen, is that of the West Pascagoula Creosote Works, owned by the L. & N. Railroad. Mr. John B. Lindsey, formerly of Franklin, Kentucky, is the superintendent in charge and thoroughly understands every detail of the business. The plant is being run to its full capacity and the company finds an endless demand for their product. The American Bell Telephone Company has just received from this plant a large order of creosoted poles which will be used in the different streams in this State, as well as in Louisiana and Alabama.

Death of Mr. James A. Goff.

Mr. James A. Goff was born on Dec. 26, 1827, in Jackson county, Mississippi, and departed this life Nov. 1, 1907. His first marriage was to Miss Lyda Gray in 1849, with whom he spent a long and happy life until death separated them. To them were born eight children, eight of whom survive him. His second marriage was to Mrs. Mary Coleman in 1868. He joined the Methodist church in September, 1880. He has seventy-three grandchildren and thirty-seven great grandchildren. He lived a straightforward Christian life up to his death. He was known as "Uncle Jimmy" by everybody in this county, and was never spoken of only in the highest terms. He was a soldier in the civil war of 1860, and it was so fitting that six old Confederate soldiers should serve at his funeral as pall bearers. A great soldier for his country and the Christ whom he loved and served, a devoted husband and loving father has gone to his reward above. May God sustain the faithful wife and children in their deep sorrow is the prayer of both pastor and friends.

Goff Family Changes Plans; Dorothy Dell To Be Buried In New Orleans, Not Coast

Dorothy Dell Goff will not be buried in Handsboro beside her grandfather, but instead will be interred in New Orleans, her mother, Mrs. Elbert Goff, telegraphed to Gulfport relatives this morning. The message was sent from Del Rio, Texas, by Mrs. Goff to her brother, Lee L. Davis of Gulfport. Mrs. Goff is en route by train with the body from Pasadena, Cal., where the motion picture star, lost her life in an auto accident early Friday morning.

"We have changed our plans completely and will bury Dorothy in New Orleans," the message said, stating further that the body will arrive in New Orleans Thursday morning 7:35 o'clock.

"We are sorry to have caused so much trouble but have been so shocked and am just now able to think clearly," the message said. She requested the relatives from the Coast to meet the train in New Orleans and attend the funeral. The message did not give any details of funeral arrangements.

Relatives here believe that the change in burial place was made in order to meet the mother's wishes to have the body placed in a vault above ground as expressed in a telegram received at Gulfport Tuesday.

FINDING OF BOMB IN VIENNA OFFICE RESULTS IN GUARD

Vienna, June 9.—(AP)—A bomb was discovered today above the offices of Prince Ernst Von Starhemberg, vice chancellor of Austria. The offices were thrown into a turmoil.

The bomb was discovered in a desk in an unused office. Authorities said it was found only by accident.

Increased police protection was rushed to all public buildings and further acts of violence were expected.

In addition to a long series of other bomb outrages throughout the country, the high pressure water pipes feeding the turbines of the electric power plant at Bregenz were wrecked by a bomb explosion and the electric train service was paralyzed in parts of Vorarlberg.

GOFF FUNERAL TO BE HELD AT HATTIESBURG

Family Decides Today To Bury Actress In Forrest County City; Will Start Journey Soon.

Passadena, Calif., June 9.—(AP)—The family of Dorothy Dell Goff, youthful film actress killed in an auto accident early Friday, decided today to leave with the body Monday or Tuesday for Hattiesburg, Miss., where funeral services will be held.

Latest advice received today by Lee L. Davis, Gulfport uncle of Miss Goff, states that the body would not be brought "home" for a "week or so" because of uncertainty of future plans of the family. It was believed that her father, mother and sister intended to return to Mississippi permanently when they accompany the body and that some time would be necessary to prepare for this move.

When advised of the Associated Press dispatch stating that interment would be at Hattiesburg, Mrs. Davis this afternoon said that perhaps Handsboro instead of Hattiesburg was meant.

The news of Dorothy Dell's death was received with deep sorrow in the Coast area where she had lived and visited. A number of relatives reside in Gulfport, Handsboro, Biloxi, Ocean Springs and Moss Point, and she has visited all of them in her youthful days. Her first public appearance was at Ocean Springs when she became "queen" of a May festival. As "Miss Biloxi" in 1929 she came into the limelight in this area and her subsequent career as "Miss New Orleans," "Miss America" and "Miss Universe," and her later stage and motion picture career were followed with much interest by friends and relatives.

Opening of Warfield Theatre.

"Forty-Five Minutes From Broadway," Cohan's famous musical play, a production which needs no words of praise from us, was presented as the opening bill at the Warfield Theatre in this city on Monday night, March 7th, and was received with delight by the large and representative audience of the citizenship of Scranton and Moss Point, and attested the appreciation felt in having such a first class theatre located here.

Preparations had been in progress for some weeks for the opening and when the hour approached for the raising of the curtain, exposing a stage picture of magnificent splendor and settings without a defect, everything to the minutest detail was faultlessly arranged and spoke in language stronger than words of the efforts put forth by the popular manager, Mr. B. J. Blethen, to make the occasion most successful, and not the slightest hitch occurred to mar the presentation of the initiatory performance, which received from the capacity house round after round of applause, thus showing that this widely heralded play scored another big hit.

This city has long felt the need of a first-class theatre and we now have one of the prettiest and most comfortable playhouses in the State, which in size of stage and fittings will allow the accommodation, with but few exceptions, of any production now on the road, and will allow this theatre-loving public the opportunity of witnessing such at home.

Primrose Big Minstrels at the Warfield on March 21st.

Minstrel organizations from away back to the original Christy's Serenaders have come and gone; some have left an impress of kindly appreciation, while others have scarcely been thought about. Among the few known that came and are a fixture, as it were, none seem to have fastened themselves upon the affections of burnt cork admirers with such tenacity as the Primrose Minstrels, who will present one of their wholly inviting programs at the Warfield Theatre on Monday night, March 21st. In accordance with a firmly fixed principle, Mr. Primrose has this season scanned the earth in search of novel features to divide interest with a band of singers and a small army of comedians.

But that view was by no means unanimous — especially among Democrats, most of whom opposed the measures in both chambers.

"These bills punish working families and reward the wealthy and the big multinationals," said House Minority Whip David Bonior, D-Mich. "It's inequitable, it's unfair and it puts the burden on those who can least afford to bear it."

Both versions claim to eliminate deficits by 2002 — which would be a first since 1969 — mostly by targeting federal health care programs, selling slices of the broad-

Repeated violations of Cajun's have brought about more frequent checks. Tuesday's inspection was a follow-up to the June 10 visit. Tom Harvey, owner of the Cajun's chain, was unavailable for comment about the outcome of the inspection.

ratory module.

The collision put an estimated 1-inch gash in Spektr. When the crew heard the hissing of oxygen seeping through the hole and felt pressure dropping throughout Mir, they immediately shut the hatch, sealing Spektr off from the rest of the space station but exposing it to the deadly vacuum of space.

Pressure aboard the rest of the space station soon stabilized. By afternoon, eight hours after the accident, the pressure was a little low and the temperature about normal, Culbertson said.

Through their quick action, the cosmonauts saved the station from worse damage and possible abandonment, both countries' space programs said.

The crash also punctured one of the solar panels on Spektr and dented a radiator, Culbertson said. Spacewalks almost certainly would be required to repair the hole, if it can be fixed, he said.
